

The Society of Iranian American Women for Education, SIawe, was established as a nonprofit charitable corporation under the laws of the state of Texas. This organization does not have any religious or political affiliation.

The goal of SIawe is to provide educational support and assistance through scholarships, to enhance educational opportunities, and to preserve knowledge of the Iranian culture among youth and families. The organization's major objective is to provide scholarships to qualified students.

As the result of your support and contributions, the Society of Iranian American Women for Education has been able to provide scholarships to hundreds of students in the past few years. Thank you for making a difference in lives of so many students.
